What could/should the Marino Residents Association do to more effectively support the common interests of the community?

5.

Would you be willing to participate in one or two community engagement meetings to help develop a Strategic Plan?

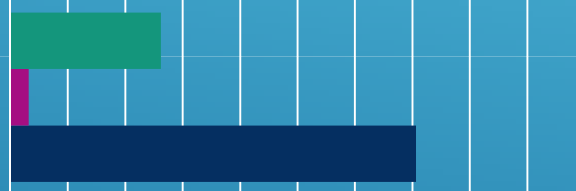

I would be happy to take part in an online forum where I can share my views

I support the plan to include pages for other local community groups on the website

The new website is a good source of information on activities

I think the website is vital for connecting our community
